

Student Info

1. Do/did you study Geography?

2. If yes, a bachelor/master?

Where?

3. If not, what is your background?
(engineer, biologist, geologist...)

4. What are your labour
expectations as a geospatial
professional?

Transversal skills. Reading the list of transversal skills for 5 minutes. Later, first stage of questions.

5. Are they all clear and understandable for you?

6. Do you agree with the four
groups of transversal skills?

7. Do you miss another group?

8. What are your labour
expectations as a geospatial
professional?

9. Do you miss any transversal
skill in particular?

10. Please, rank from 1 to 4 the
groups of transversal skills.
Explain why.

11. Please, select the three most relevant skills in each group.
Explain why.

GIS skills. Reading the list of GIS skills for 5 minutes. Later, second stage of questions.

12. Are they all clear and understandable for you?

13. Do you agree with the four groups of GIS skills?

14. Do you miss another group?

15. Do you agree with GIS skills listed inside each group?

16. Do you miss any GIS skill in particular?

17. Please, rank from 1 to 4 the groups of GIS skills. Explain why.

18. Please, select the three most relevant GIS skills in each group. Explain why.

19. Do you think that your university courses have trained you enough in all of them? If not, in which you feel undertrained?

Final questions

20. What do you think that about transversal skills?

Are they more/same/less important than GIS skills to get a job? Explain why.

21. Have you had additional GIS training to your bachelor or master? (courses, webinars, workshops, internships...)

22. How would you like to be a MOOC for training you in these skills more deeply?
